The Board thanked Dr. Sightler and Dr. Grossman for their service to the citizens of Georgia.

Dr. Koh stated that he had a master's degree psychology with an emphasis in counseling, but was not a licensed counselor. The Board responded that psychiatric treatment and counseling were within the scope of practice of a licensed physician, and cautioned Dr. Koh that he should make clear to his patients that he was not offering such services as a psychologist or counselor.
4. Jennifer Dawkins, CPC, (Equian, LLC) asked the Board if a physician could see a patient every month and perform drug screen every month in order to meet the random testing requirement of Rule 360-3-.06(g).
