

FACT SHEET FREE CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION FOR VOLUNTEERING

Did you know?

- Physicians can receive continuing education credit for volunteering their time in uncompensated health care services for qualified organizations such as free clinics!
- Physicians can earn a maximum of ten continuing medical education hours every two years!
- For every four hours of documented work the Medical Board will waive one hour of continuing medical education up to ten (10) hours!

Rule 360-15-.01 (3) In meeting the continuing education requirements, the Board will waive one hour CME requirement for physicians for each four hours of documented work by the physician in uncompensated health care services, such as free clinics, up to a maximum of ten CME hours per biennium. In order to receive the waiver, the physician shall submit to the Board documentation of such work at the time of renewal.
