Dr. DeLoach submitted a motion, seconded by Dr. Retterbush, to approve the minutes of the May 4, 2017 meeting. The motion carried unanimously.

CHAIR'S REPORT

Dr. Antalis presented a proposed public statement concerning the Board's handling of cases in which licensees were found to have committed sexual misconduct and/or boundary violations. Dr. Retterbush offered a motion, seconded by Dr. DeLoach, to adopt the statement and to release it to the public after the June 2017 meeting concluded. The motion carried unanimously. The Board adopted the following statement:

"It is the intent of the Board to protect Georgia patients from physicians who use coercion or power for sex by:

- EDUCATING physicians about the importance of reporting colleagues who may be committing boundary violations;
- INVESTIGATING every allegation and involving law enforcement when the investigation reveals criminal activity;

Georgia Composite Medical Board

Minutes of the June 8-9, 2017 Meeting

- ENFORCING allegations that are proven by issuance of a Public Consent Order or Revocation of their medical license.”

ELECTION OF J. JEFFREY MARSHALL, MD, TO VICE-CHAIR FOR FY 2018 TERM

REMARKS BY DAVID HESS, MD

Dr. Antalis thanked David Hess, MD, Dean of the Medical College of Georgia, for MCG’s gracious hospitality in hosting the June 2017 Board meeting. Dr. Hess welcomed the Board to Augusta and gave a presentation about MCG and its student body.

RECESS

Dr. Antalis declared the meeting in recess for the purpose of holding committee meetings.

RECONVENED

Dr. Antalis reconvened the meeting of the Georgia Composite Medical Board at 3:00 PM, June 8, 2017.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Mr. Jeffery presented his report. The Board took the following actions:

1. Adopted a policy for the administrative approval of physician licensure applications.
2. Reviewed an inquiry from Robert Dindoffer, attorney with The Health Law Partners, asking for guidance on whether a Georgia licensee who is physically located outside the state, and who does not have primary responsibility for the care/diagnoses of a patient who is physically located in Georgia, is permitted to order laboratory testing for such patients based upon review of their medical records and without any face-to-face interaction or real-time remote communication. The inquiry further specified that the physician is not responsible for collecting samples or making diagnose of any condition, and the patient has signed proper informed consent forms. The Board asked Mr. Dindoffer to clarify who would collect the sample and interpret the results.
3. Asked Mr. Jeffery to include an article in the July newsletter concerning the new requirements for PDMP registration.
